TURNING PHOTOS INTO MULTIMEDIA

How to transform your still photos into beautiful, dynamic slide shows to be presented by Al Risaliti

Remember your Uncle Stanley's slide shows? Remember how he gleefully projected one tedious slide after another, while his audience stifled yawns and worried whether the evening might end with their being hospitalized for acute boredom? It is easy to recreate your uncle's horrid slide shows on any computer, but on Tuesday, Al will show how to create fascinating, moving, entertaining, colorful slide shows on your Mac. Build engaging multimedia presentations with your own photos, using music, motion, transitions and effects. Come learn a new way to show off your pictures, not to mention a brand new way to keep your audience awake!

Also,

BACK TO MAC BASICS

Better than a photo album, and infinitely more eye-catching than the slide shows of yesteryear, multimedia slide shows are a great way to show off your photos. Using your Mac, along with some software and plenty of fun, you can create shows that will amaze, not bore. Please join us on Tuesday to learn how. And please feel free to bring a friend. See you there!
