This month's topic:

ALL ABOUT E-BOOKS AND E-BOOK READERS

How to find and read e-books on e-book readers, Macs and various mobile devices to be presented by Roger Owens

If the twelve days of Christmas leave you frazzled, what could be more therapeutic than curling up by the fire with a good book? This holiday season, that good book could be an electronic book, for e-books and e-readers make perfect Christmas gifts, including presents for yourself. On Tuesday, we will take a good look at standalone e-book readers, including the Amazon Kindle, Barnes & Noble Nook, and others. And if you prefer to curl up with something you already have at hand, we will look at various apps available for reading e-books on other devices, including the iPad, iPhone and your Macintosh. We will also discuss where to find e-books, including free sources and public libraries. So have yourself a merry little Christmas, let your heart be light, but after the festivities, perhaps you can Kindle the fire, find yourself a comfortable Nook, and settle down with a cup of Christmas tea and your favorite new book.

Also,

BACK TO MAC BASICS

In this segment, we focus on more fundamental skills, to make life a little easier for those who are trying to learn how to use their Macs. This month:

ALL ABOUT SOFTWARE UPDATES

Finding newer versions of your software does not need to be a chore. Tom will demonstrate simple ways to look for and install various software updates on your Mac.

There is plenty to be said for a gift of a partridge in a pear tree, not to mention five golden rings. On the other hand, a gift of twelve drummers drumming can quickly become tiresome. But if you would love the gift of electronic books and readers, please join us on Tuesday to learn about this wonderful resource. And please feel free to bring a friend. See you there!
